B. Speaker (10:00 - 11:00): Dak Hardwick

Biography:

- Dak Hardwick currently serves as the Vice President of International Affairs at the Aerospace Industries Association (AIA). In this role, he oversees AIA's international policy and advocacy program, representing the U.S. aerospace and defense industry on issues such as defense and commercial trade, industrial cooperation, technology security, and global supply chains to stakeholders worldwide.
- Before joining AIA, Hardwick worked at Harris Corporation, an international communications and information technology company. At Harris, he served as the primary liaison with the U.S. government for communication programs, including airspace modernization, intelligence, and meteorological ground system programs. He was also responsible for coordinating with U.S. government and international officials to ensure the export of Harris radio communications products to U.S.-allied and partner nations.
